Description The U.S. Army Environmental Command (USAEC) is offering a Bachelor's or Master's level internship at the Fort Huachuca facility.

What will I be doing?

As an ORISE participant and under the guidance of a mentor, you will be exposed to a variety of environmental related roles that are designed to enhance your experience and knowledge. As the selected candidate, you will collect, compile, analyze and enter environmental management data for one or more program areas such as Clean Air Act, some Hazardous Waste, various aspects in the Water Quality arena and other areas. You will gain experience in laboratory testing and data compilation/calculations are for State and Federal reporting to determine compliance. Alternative/Cross training in multiple fields is highly likely and you will assist with implementation of Defense Environmental Compliance Program, specifically the Storm Water Program. In addition, you participate in the water data collection and modeling and you will learn sampling, reporting and required regulatory samples analyses techniques. Finally, in compliance with the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (RCRA) and the Clean Air Act (CAA), you will be cross-trained in the Hazardous Waste and Disposal Program, and Air Program.

Where will I be located?

Fort Huachuca, Arizona

What is the anticipated start date?

The US Army Environmental Command is ready to make appointments effective immediately. Exact start dates will be determined at the time of selection and in coordination with the selected candidate. Applications are reviewed on an ongoing basis and internships or fellowships will be filled as qualified candidates are identified.

What is the appointment length?

This appointment is a twelve month research appointment, with the possibility to be renewed for additional research periods. Appointments may be extended depending on funding availability, project assignment, program rules, and availability of the participant.

What are the benefits?

You will receive a stipend to be determined by USAEC. Stipends are typically based on a participant's academic standing, discipline, experience, and research facility location. Other benefits may include the following:

- Health Insurance Supplement (Participants are eligible to purchase health insurance through ORISE)
- Relocation Allowance
- Training and Travel Allowance
