Opportunity Reference Code: ORNL-TPI-Spring-2025

Organization Oak Ridge National Laboratory (ORNL)

Reference Code ORNL-TPI-Spring-2025

Application Deadline 10/23/2024 11:59:00 PM Eastern Time Zone

Description Diversity is Key

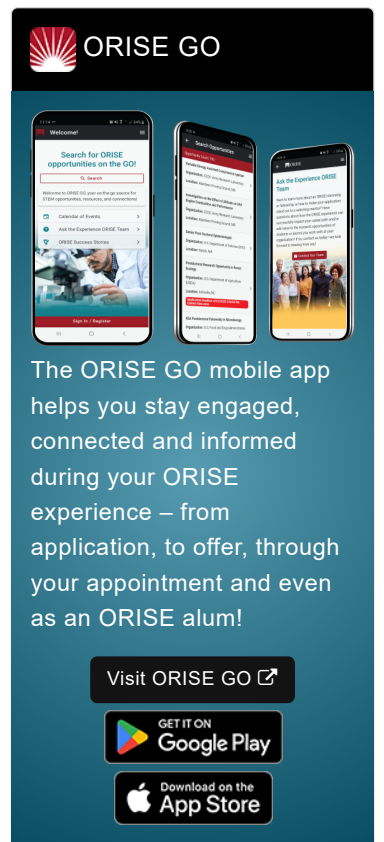

Scientific discovery is a team effort. Researchers, engineers, and technical and business professionals support achievements in science and technology by helping to manage and operate research projects and facilities. We believe the teams required to solve the nation's most pressing scientific challenges are those that combine a wide range of backgrounds and perspectives.

Technical and Professional Internship Program Details

- Appointments are for 16-20 weeks during the Spring, with the option for a 12 month appointment available for recent graduates.
- Full-time participation or part-time participation for students enrolled in school full-time.
- Appointments will start on January 6, 2025, and end on April 25, 2025. Dates for individual appointments may be flexible to account for academic calendars. For students with conflicts that are not academic calendar related, they may elect to start on January 13, 2025, and end on May 2, 2025. Appointments may be extended depending on funding availability, project assignment, program rules, and availability of the participant.
- Full-time appointments will be conducted on-site in Oak Ridge, Tennessee. Part-time appointments can be virtual or on-site in Oak Ridge, Tennessee.

A few helpful tips before you start an application:

- Review the technical and operational areas at ORNL to determine what best fits your career goals. You will find organization charts under About Us<Overview<Organization at www.ornl.gov.
 - For example, if you choose Business Services, you will find a variety of news, current highlights, and more. You can explore other areas or related links and organizations to identify your areas of interest and key words, important terminology, papers, etc. that can be used as you answer application questions or update your resume.
 - Type a key word into the search box at the top right corner at www.ornl.gov and follow the links provided to identify key staff at ORNL and/or the webpages of the related directorates or divisions. You will find general contacts and can access many of the Division or User Facility pages under "Our People".
 - Given the workload of the people in Directorate, Division, and Section level leadership positions, it is strongly recommended that you dive at least to the group leader level (or further) before reaching out to a listed staff member.
- After you have completed your application, reach out via email (use the Contact - Find People - Staff Directory link at www.ornl.gov to enter a name and obtain an email address) to the technical staff you identify.

- Tell them about your background and describe how your career objectives and interests relate to their technical and professional work.
- Include an updated resume/CV in the email and let them know which programs you have applied to at ORNL.
- Showing initiative by reaching out to discuss your career interests is a great way to introduce yourself to potential mentors. This personal connection can be the key to “standing out” from other applications.
The TPI programs use "pool" based application postings where multiple mentors will consider candidates with a variety of interests for different educational project opportunities, so this can be a critical step for selection success.

Qualifications Citizenship

Applicants must be a U.S. citizen or Lawful Permanent Resident (LPR) at the time of application.

Eligibility Requirements (Note: Postdoctoral applicants are not eligible for the TPI program)

To be considered for this opportunity, applicants must:

- Meet one of three criteria noted below:

starting on or around October 23, 2024.

- Selected applicants must respond to their offer within seven (7) days of receipt of the offer.

During the Appointment

Appointments require a commitment to the technical and professional operations at ORNL. The participant's project must be conducted in a manner and according to a time schedule that meets the overall technical needs of ORNL.

- Deliverables

- All TPI participants are required to submit an appointment reflection and develop a final presentation (poster or PowerPoint) at the end of the program.
- Participants may also have the opportunity to collaborate on manuscripts and/or to join conferences, poster sessions, and other opportunities to present or publish their research.

- Stipend (paid biweekly)

- Participants receive a biweekly stipend. Stipend payments and housing allowances are taxable as an educational benefit. There will be a delay after starting before you receive your first stipend. You should be prepared to cover all personal expenses for the first 30 days of your appointment.
 - $750 per week for undergraduate students, recent graduates (Associate's), or recently separated veterans with high school diploma/GED
 - $850 per week for recent graduates (Bachelor's)
 - $950 per week for graduate students or recent graduates (Master's)

- Housing Allowance (paid biweekly with stipend)

- A housing allowance of $250 per week will be provided to participants.

- Travel

- Eligible participants whose permanent address is more than 50 miles from the host facility may receive a travel reimbursement of up to $1,000 for round-trip transportation expenses to and from ORNL

Contingencies

All awards and active participation in the program are contingent upon security access approval to Oak Ridge National Laboratory, agreement with the Terms of Appointment, and completion of all contingencies in the offer letter. All contingencies of an appointment offer must be met before the applicant can begin an appointment.

- Participants are subject to DOE clearance approval for laboratory access.
- TPI participants are required to have coverage under a health insurance plan for the duration of the appointment period and must provide proof of such coverage. It is your responsibility to secure insurance coverage
